Band Course Overview

Unit	Major Concepts	Skills	Summative Assessments
Individual Lessons	Students learn skills on their instruments enabling them to perform as individuals. Students learn to care for their chosen instruments. Students master the building blocks of music to perform increasingly advanced concepts.	 Basic technique Posture Breathing Articulation Embouchure and air direction Instrument position Hand position Assembly and maintenance Idiomatic issues and skills Scales and arpeggios (and rudiments for percussion) Rhythm, counting, and meter Notation Tone quality/intonation 	Authentic task: weekly lesson assessment Solo performance
Full Band Rehearsal	Students learn connections between the individual performance and its contribution to the ensemble. Students learn practices and techniques to improve their individual performance as well as the performance of the ensemble. Students learn to identify compositional techniques used by various composers and perform works as the composers intended. Students learn to listen to the music they are creating and to appreciate it, whether or not it is the student's preferred style of music.	 Posture Prepared with materials (music, instrument, pencil) Rehearsal etiquette. Understand the conductor's gestures. Multiple measure rest. Warm-up procedure Intonation Balance & blend Individual's obligation to the whole Musical form and compositional techniques Composer's intent (conductor/student role). Instrument part's role within a composition. Aesthetic connection between the composer, the collective performers, and the audience. 	Assessments of individual part preparation during lessons and rehearsals Concert performance reflection: Written reflection (survey of perceived strengths and areas in need of growth) following concert performances

Band Course Overview